

PREFACE

Spring... the season of the blooming flowers, the fresh leaves at the trees, the new nests of the birds and the newborn foals and calves frisking on the meadow. But also the big start of a great new Volkswagen season. The results of the previous newsletter are very concrete. The backorder lists are wasting away because of the great mass of spare parts which arrived at BBT. Our stock has never been before so huge. And even if there are some lines which are filled in yet, the big zeros have been shot to the eternal backorder fields... it doesn't stop yet, never before BBT as bought so many products, the racks are bulging out. Each week new containers are arriving. It's obvious that some place management imposed itself, that's why the warehouse of the used spare parts has been moved and we are also going to move the workshop too. So our warehouse will get another redivision and therefore the pick/pack and the loading time will be much faster. About the economy, in my opinion it's somewhat a slack season on the stock exchanges. Each time there are new parameters to determine the influences of the rates. No clear directives, some up and down yo-yo of most foreign currencies. We try to keep our prices stable, in which we've quite succeeded. The only problem is that due to the always greater globalisation prices are rising in quite some low remuneration countries such as Brazil and China. We'll have to take this into account in the near future.

When I'll finish writing this newsletter I'll be packing to leave to the Volksworldshow (UK).

Perhaps we'll meet there, I expect much of it anyway. Each year it's always worth while, and more I'll visit the first of May Hannover in Germany and later Super VW Nationals in France too. Perhaps we'll meet there?

As you can see there's a lot to happen and not only in nature. BBT too is shaking on its foundations, so eager we are going forwards to the new season, and with all the stocks we have, deliveries will be better as ever!

If I might not see you earlier... till the summer edition, and never forget... just keep the VW faith!

Bob

BBT INFRASTRUCTURE

Just as we are going to press, our new shop joined with the offices should be a fact, mainly the electricity kept waiting, but renovating without problems doesn't exist of course. The new offices are incredibly cosy and very bright. We hope that our colleagues will be still more motivated to render you customer a even better service.

Our next renovation is the warehouse with the used spare parts, which is to be cleaned thoroughly at this moment, things we'll keep, will be moved to the car warehouse. On the place of the used spare parts there will come a new floor and afterwards our stock and overstock will be partly laid here.

Other projects are the removal of the workshop and a complete new layout of our warehouse. Great plans, a lot of work.

PERSONNEL INFORMATION

First we've got to announce that Kim has chosen to leave BBT in order to specialise himself into his previous occupation as designer. Anyway we wish Kim best of luck in his further career. I would like to thank him again for his delivered efforts here at BBT.

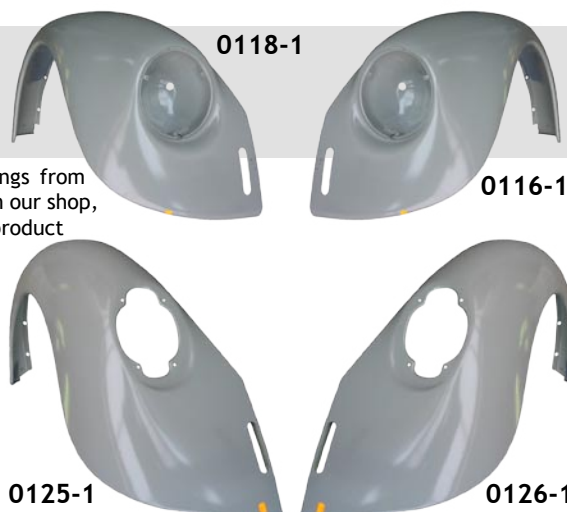

Secondly we have the happy news that reinforcement is coming for the sellers team. Inès started some weeks ago to follow up the entire administration of the sellers team, from order till invoicing. Inès comes from a family business and she feels super here with 'her' new BBT family. Mainly the wholesale and the export customers will get Inès on the phone or mail!
